

Admission Policies And Curricula Of Alabama's Vocational-Technical Institutions

In Alabama's vocational-technical institutions, enrolling students must be at least 16 years of age. Most of the institutions are not restricted to high school graduates; however, applicants for enrollment in the technical courses must be graduates of an accredited high school, or the equivalent. Some departments require a physical examination and letters of recommendation.

In most vocational courses students may enroll at the beginning of each month. The technical courses enrollment will be limited to a quarterly or semi-annual basis. It is expected that tests given students will be used primarily for guidance and counseling purposes and will not be used to prevent applicants who are otherwise qualified from entering the vocational-technical schools. The state vocational-technical institutions are designed to serve the occupational needs and interests of all Alabamians in all areas of the state.

Schoolbuses Arrive For Enterprise Junior College

Five new schoolbuses for Enterprise Junior College arrived Sunday. According to O. P. Richardson of the state department of education, they are part of a fleet of 185 which will be delivered during the next few weeks at 13 new junior colleges throughout Alabama. He said George C. Wallace Junior College at Dothan would get three new buses to share with the trade school there.

Mr. Ball said that the new Social Security Administration Office will be opened in Andalusia, Alabama in the near future.

Robert M. Ball, Commissioner of Social Security, announced in Washington.

The new office will serve residents of Coffee and Covington Counties and will be a branch of the Dothan District Office.

Mr. Ball said that the Andalusia office is one of 71 new social security offices to be opened in various parts of the United States, all of which will be branches of existing district offices. These offices are designed to provide better service to people covered by the social security program, many of whom now have to travel considerable distances to reach a social security office. As with the other 70 locations, the decision to open a social security office in Andalusia was based largely upon the anticipated need for additional service in these communities arising from changes in the social security program brought about by the introduction of "Medicare." Population growth and changes in its pattern also were factors in deciding upon the location of the branch offices, Mr. Ball pointed out.

The new office will be staffed to answer inquiries about the new health insurance and voluntary supplementary medical insurance program of Medicare as well as to help people apply for social security benefits and to answer inquiries about other aspects of the social security program.

MRS. WILL KENDRICK, SOCIETY EDITOR

Taylor - Hudson Vows Said

On August 21, at four in the afternoon, Miss Annie Jean Taylor and Paul Hudson exchanged nuptial vows.

The Reverend David Carter performed the double ring ceremony in the Elba Methodist Church, Miss Sara Beth Seay, of Dadeville, organist, and Donnie Morrow, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music.

The bride, daughter of Mr. W. H. Taylor and the late Mrs. Mary Frances Grimes Taylor, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of white tulle de sole, The fitted bodice was fastened with a scalloped neckline and long sleeves that came to a point at the wrists. Lace and seed pearls extended down the front of the waist slightly below the waistline. The straight fitted skirt bore a detachable train. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was attached to a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Waylon Nelson attended her sister as matron of honor.

Miss Ann Waters and Miss Patricia Ennis were bridesmaids, Susan and Sharon Mitchell, of Mobile, cousins of the bride, were junior attendants, Susan Taylor, the bride's sister, was flower girl.

The attendants wore empire waistline dresses with A-line skirts and flat bows in the back. Their dresses were of gold tulle de sole. Their headpieces were floating veils of gold tulle. Their bouquets were of mixed flowers in autumn colors. The flower girl wore a dress the same as the other attendants except with a fuller skirt.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hudson, was attended by Dwight Kelley as best man. Ushers and groomsmen were: Charles Pearce, Tony Hudson, Doyle Carpenter, of Ozark, and Billy Woodham, of Eufaula. Jamie Hudson was ring bearer.

The altar decoration featured a huge arrangement of mums and glads in Mayro Prescott served a salad plate. A lovely crystal bowl of mums and glads in Mayro Prescott served a salad plate.

After the ceremony the bride's parents were hosts at a reception in the church parlor.

The couple will live in an apartment in the home of Mrs. Paul King, Mrs. Linda Mr. and Mrs. Mack Wise, Brazelton, Mrs. Charles luncheon at a Troy restaurant.

Hostesses were: Mrs. T. B. Bryan, Mrs. John B. Johnson, Mrs. Olen Warren, Mrs. Harold Deal, Mrs. Jack Windham, Mrs. M. J. Lee, Mrs. John Glen Lee, and Mrs. J. R. Deal.

A color theme of green, white and yellow was emphasized in the decorations and the menu. The head table held a massive arrangement of yellow mums with delicate greenery for a centerpiece. At either end was a single slender white taper nestled in white tulle and dainty white flowers. Each of the other two tables held smaller bouquets identical to the one on the head table. Guests places were marked with name cards adorned with silver wedding bells.

The guest of honor wore a bright green silk shantung two piece dress with matching accessories.

Those included with Miss Dorsey were her mother, Mrs. Henry Dorsey; the groom-to-be's mother, Mrs. Frank Pridgen; of Dothan; Mrs. Fountain Lee, Mrs. C. E. Dorsey, Sr., Mrs. Sam Sawyer, Mrs. C. E. "UNCLE BILL" TINDOL'S BIRTHDAY

Many Relatives Join "Uncle Bill" Sunday

MISS LINDA FOLSOM, the new Miss Alabama, is pictured with her grandfather, Mr. Bill Tindol, during festivities commemorating his 96th birthday Sunday, August 22nd. Linda led the large group of relatives and other well wishers in singing Happy Birthday to the honoree and then started off the food line by fixing a plate for "granddaddy". An interesting thing that came to light Sunday was that Linda's mother made the beautiful and stylish dress Linda is wearing in this photo for her to wear in the Miss Alabama pageant. Furthermore she made the stunning gown Linda wore when she was crowned Miss Alabama.

Hundreds Take Part In Homecoming

The people of New Brockton and the rest of Coffee County let everyone know Saturday that they are proud to say "She's from here" when anyone starts talking about the lovely new Miss Alabama, Miss Linda Folsom, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Folsom of New Brockton.

Linda arrived at the Elba Airport at about 10:45 A. M. in a chartered plane and stepped out to find a crowd of several hundred people including friends, relatives, news reporters and the Elba High School Band cheering and congratulating her. This was the first time she had seen her family since winning the title two weeks ago.

James Hatcher, a native of Enterprise, was the M. C. here also and introduced the guest including Dr. Howard Phillips, president of Birmingham Southern College, and Mrs. Phillips, former Governor James Folsom and Mrs. Folsom; Miss Vicki Powers of Mobile, Miss Alabama of 1965, and the Reverend Charles Hildreth, Methodist district superintendent, the mayors of the Coffee County towns and the immediate family of Miss Folsom.

Mayor Helms of New Brockton presented Linda with a gigantic key to the city and added that he felt he was speaking for everyone when he said that Linda was a fine girl and that everyone was proud of her.

Linda expressed her thanks and stated that "I hope I can fulfill all the qualities Miss Alabama should have."

Following the official welcome in New Brockton the group motored back to the Elba Country Club for a luncheon sponsored by the people of New Brockton, Master of Ceremonies for this luncheon was Bryant Steele, principal of New Brockton High School, and the speaker was Dr. Phillips.

Dr. Phillips said in part "Miss Alabama is a wonderful example of Alabama's youth. Linda is a young person with tremendous talent, great charm and beauty who lives, not selfishly, but for the pleasure of others."

After the completion of Dr. Phillips' address Bryant Steele was heard to comment, in reference to the pretty sorority sisters and the former Miss Alabama that were with Linda and also students at Birmingham Southern, that Dr. Phillips must recruit pretty girls like Miss Bryant Steele's football players.

The last item on the luncheon program was the presentation by Elba's Mayor Mullins of the "Key of the City". The small gold key was inscribed with the slogan "Elba, Alabama - The City of Flowing Wells".

Following the adjournment of the luncheon (about 3:00) the lovely ladies drove to Enterprise to prepare for the planned activities for Saturday evening. These started with a 6:00 dinner hosted by the City of Enterprise and followed with the Miss Enterprise Pageant.

The Miss Enterprise Pageant is sponsored by the Elba Club and directed by James Hatcher, a former resident of Enterprise.

Linda Folsom, first alternate Allison Lee and last year's Miss Alabama, Vicki Powers, were included on the program that was enjoyed by a houseful of spectators.

A unrehearsed and unscheduled highlight to the event was when Mayor Brown of Enterprise called Linda back onto the stage and presented her with an envelope containing $500.00 and suggested that she use it to defray the expenses of her parents trip to Atlantic City next month for the Miss America Pageant. The money was contributed by the Cities of New Brockton, Enterprise and Elba and many citizens who wished her well.

Miss Folsom, was caught off balance with that and was seen to quickly wipe away a tear after she kissed the Mayor and turned to retire from the stage.

A reception in honor of Miss Alabama and held at the Enterprise Community Center followed the Enterprise Pageant and was the last public appearance of Miss Folsom before returning to Birmingham.

She did attend a large family birthday dinner in honor of her grandfather Sunday.

LINDA'S HOMECOMING

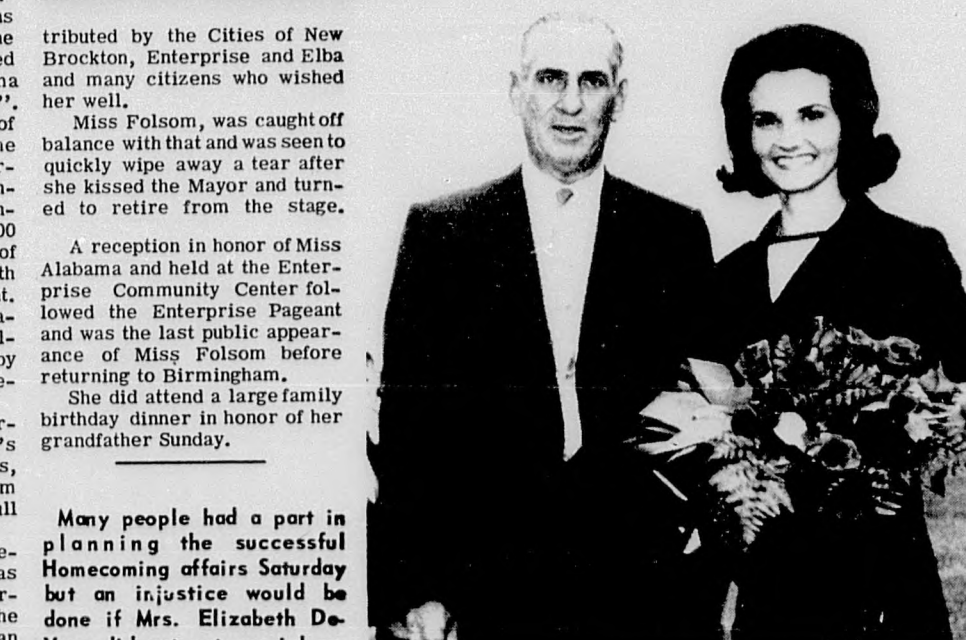

MISS ALABAMA with the members of her immediate family as they greeted her upon her arrival from Birmingham for the Homecoming activities at New Brockton in her honor. It was the first time any of Linda's family had seen her since she became Miss Alabama. The family is from left to right: her brother Pat, his wife Sue, Linda's father Mr. Wade Folsom; Linda; her mother Mrs. Lee (Tindol) Folsom and her younger sister Dianne. Her parents plan to accompany Linda to Atlantic City in September for the Miss America activities.

COFFEE COUNTY MAYORS heartily congratulate Coffee County's own, Linda Folsom, the new Miss Alabama as she alighted from the chartered plane that brought her and her party down for the Homecoming activities in her honor at New Brockton.

COUNCILMAN BOB FOLSOM of Elba is strutting with pride as he poses with his distant cousin because the people of New Brockton were nice enough to allow time for the people of Elba to show that they were proud of Linda too.

Farm NEWS

BY TOM CASADAY, CO. AGENT

NEW HOMEOWNERS

We have a new bulletin in our office entitled, "Protecting Shade Trees During Home Construction." This bulletin is free, and we will be glad to send you a copy if you will write to us at the County Extension Office or call us at 347-6095.

FARM INCOME TAX

SCHOOL
Sometimes in October or November, if everything works out as planned, we hope to have a 2-1/2 hour meeting on income tax management for farmers. We know that good farmers "think taxes" all during the year. We believe that this 2-1/2 hours spent with interested farmers will be profitable. Members of the farm management staff of our Extension Service at Auburn will conduct the meeting. All farmers will be notified when the date is set.

FILL THE GAP

Beef cattle production is growing in Coffee County, but the potential is far from being realized. One draw back is serious feed shortages which occur from November into April. We are saving less than 1/2 ton of hay for each animal when two or three times this much is needed. I am saying this to point out that winter grazing can help fill this gap.

PEANUT HARVESTING

L. E. Samples, Engineering Agent with University of Georgia, has this good advice to offer to those who are plowing up peanuts: "In digging, the taproot of the peanut plant should be cut just below the area of nuts. To do this, use a sharp digger blade adjusted with a slight upward pitch. Excessive blade pitch or dull blades may drag nuts from the vines. Adequate loosening of the soil around peanuts may be accomplished with a very slight pitch on the digger blade adjusted to give a lifting action under the main stem."

PEANUT DISEASES

States McCarter, our plant disease specialist at Auburn, visited Gerald and Walker Hataway in the Kinston Community last week with Extension Farm Agent, J. R. Speed, to check on stunted peanuts. The Hataways had some peanuts that were normal and others that were only about half as growthy. McCarter and Speed found that these stunted peanuts were heavily infested with root-knot nematodes.

We strongly advise a rotation with corn or small grains with peanuts, and where this is not possible, we recommend chemical treatment but rotation is a lot cheaper.

LIME

This past week we mailed a bulletin on lime of fine adult citizens from all walks of life."

The Alabama - Florida Council now has 4,106 boys in Scouting and expects to add 1,500 new Scouts before the end of 1965 as a part of the national, 2-year breakthrough for Youth program which continues until 1967.

Civil Defense displays covering shelter, planning, training, etc., are available for fairs scheduled over Alabama.

The Claims Investigation Unit of the State Department of Industrial Relations' unemployment compensation agency has the responsibility to prevent or detect irregular claims for benefits under Alabama's Unemployment Compensation Law.

FOOD

Coffee County people as well as people throughout the United States are getting the best food bargains in history. The efficiency of agriculture in this county is something that a lot of people take for granted. The fact is that because of the efficiency of Coffee County farmers and others, folks who have to buy most of their food are saving hundreds of dollars each year on the food costs.

ALL-BREED SALE

Those of you who are interested in buying bred gilts, open gilts, and boars are reminded to mark the calendar and remember the All-Breed Sale which will be held in Elba October 27, 1965.

Expect More Boys For Scouting

A dramatic advance in getting Scouting to more boys is expected as the result of the Breakthrough for Youth program of the Alabama-Florida Council, Boy Scouts of America, according to Stanhope Elmore, Jr., the council president.

Nearly 200 Cub Scout packs, Boy Scout troops, and Explorer posts in the wiregrass area are setting new goals that will expand the quality of the Scout program and ensure the reaching of a substantially greater number of boys, Elmore said. The goals affect trained leadership, membership, program, advancement, service, and activities.

Breakthrough for Youth means that Scout leaders are determined to use Scouting's great potential to build a new generation of American boys, Elmore said.

He pointed out that a recent study of school dropouts shows an almost complete lack of skills and either a total lack of confidence or a misguided confidence not backed up with ability.

"Scouting can do much to help," he said. "Scouting skills and the advancement program bolster confidence. Our merit badge program provides opportunities for boys to explore over a hundred subjects under the guidance of fine adult citizens from

... about your SOCIAL SECURITY ...

Men and women residents over age 72 who did not previously have enough social security work credit to get benefits may now be eligible to receive payments, Harry N. Scott, social security district manager in Dothan, announced this week.

Before the recent changes in the social security law, at least 6 quarters of coverage--about a year and a half of work under the law--were required to get benefits, Mr. Scott stated. Under the new provision, benefits may be paid in some cases to a worker (and his wife) if the worker has 3 quarters of coverage, about 9 months of work. The exact number of quarters of coverage needed depends on the age of the worker, Mr. Scott added.

A man 76 or more or a woman 73 or more in 1965 needs just 3 quarters of coverage. A man 75 or a woman 72 in 1965 needs 4 quarters of coverage, and a man 74 or a woman 71 in 1965 needs 5 quarters of coverage (to qualify for benefits at age 72.) Anyone younger needs six or more quarters of coverage.

Workers and widows of deceased workers who are eligible under this new section of the law will get $35 a month, while wives of workers who qualify will get $17.50 a month, Mr. Scott stated.

Anyone who has a question about the new provision, or any part of the social security law, is invited to write, phone, or come into the Dothan office, located at 404 South Oates Street, Mr. Scott.
